About Me

I am currently a Junior at Sam Houston State University majoring in Management of Information Systems. I have a huge passion for Business Management and IT, and I am eager to kickstart my career. I would like to apply the knowledge and skills I've gained throughout my education journey and prior work experience to a position where I can have an opportunity to learn and grow within a team. I hope to contribute to your company's success by bringing fresh perspectives and a strong work ethic.
